VOTER REGISTRATION CLOSING MONDAY, APRIL 3, 2017 AT 4:30 P.M.

Hamilton (Ohio)... A Special Election will be held in Butler County, Ohio on Tuesday, May 2, 2017. The deadline for voter registration for those wishing to vote in the upcoming May 2nd election is Monday, April 3, 2017 (30 days before the Election). Those registering after the April 3rd deadline cannot vote in the May 2, 2017 Special Election, but may vote in subsequent elections. Online voter registration is now available at MyOhioVote.com or electors may register to vote at area Libraries, Public High Schools, Bureau of Motor Vehicles facilities, and government offices. Voter Registration Forms may be found on the Board of Elections website butlercountyelections.org under the Voters Tools. Those without computer access may call the Board of Elections at (513) 887-3700 or, in the Middletown Area call (513) 424-0469. Voters who were previously registered in Ohio and who have either changed their name or changed their address should update their voter registration by filling out the voter registration form prior to the deadline. Registered voters in Ohio may update their address online at MyOhioVote.com.

Monday, April 3rd, the last day to register, the office will be open from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m.
